Discussion Questions

1. Do you think Julia had the right to be mad over the fact that her family's campgrounds were going to be sold?
2. Do you think Julia should have been upset with Nick after finding out that his father was trying to sell their land? Should kids be held responsible for their parents' actions?
3. If you were Julia's mom, would you do whatever it takes to try to save the beloved campgrounds, or would you sell it to developers for easy money?
4. It is revealed that Julia's brother suffered from Guillain-Barre Syndrome. How do you think this illness affected Julia and her mother?
5. Which love interest do you think Julia should have ended up with? Dan with all the history they have, or Nick with their new connection?
6. Julia's mom states that when she first saw (her now ex-) husband when they were 15, she knew she would marry him. What do you think of this? Do you believe in love at first sight?
7. The campgrounds are Julia's family safe haven during the summers? Do you have a place where your family goes in the summer every year that is special? Why do you like this place?
8. What do you think of Julia putting college on hold because of her family's finances? Do you think she should've applied to schools and scholarships, or was staying with her family more important?
9. If you had the chance to redevelop Julia's family's land, what would you develop it into?
